Bishop Henry Spellmeyer, D.D., LL.D.

At the General Conference of 1904, held in Los Angeles, California, Dr. Henry Spellmeyer was elected a Bishop. He was the forty-eighth in the numerical order, and one of the few men who came direct from the pastorate, he never having occupied any other position in the Church.

His record is well given in the following paragraph from an editorial in The Northwestern Christian Advocate:

"Henry Spellmeyer was born in New York city, November 25, 1847. In his blood ran the tempered strain of the German and Scotch races. From the common schools he went to the New York University, graduating at nineteen, and to Union Theological Seminary, graduating at twenty-two. He began, continued, and completed his pastoral work as a member of Newark Conference, the city of Newark being the chief and almost exclusive scene of his ministry. In 1896 his colleagues sent him to General Conference, at which time also he was appointed to membership on the Book Committee. He was made chairman of the committee on entertaining the General Conferences of 1900 and 1904, and the duties of that office brought him to the knowledge and approving esteem of the delegates to both bodies. It is remembered that he was a leading candidate for the episcopacy in the General Conference of 1900, as well as a successful candidate in the General Conference of 1904."

His episcopal residence for the first four years was in Cincinnati. The General Conference of 1908 fixed his residence in Saint Louis. He could not spend much time there, as his duties took him over much of the country, and he made an episcopal tour of China during the first four years.

It was while holding the session of the New Jersey Conference at Atlantic City, that the death messenger called for him on the morning of March 12. With no human voice to speak a word of comfort, or receive from him a parting message, he went away to be "forever with the Lord." It was a terrible shock to the members of the Conference when the news was conveyed to them that he who had been in the chair of the presiding officer only the day before was now silent in death.

The funeral services were held in Centenary Church, Newark, N. J., where thousands of people gathered to look upon his face. He was the pastor of this church when chosen to the episcopacy.

Bishop Anderson said of him:

"His ideal of life was an ideal of service; his life from beginning to end was shot through with deep moral purpose, with high Christian motive, with splendid, divine idealism. And so, for more than forty years, he walked in and out among his fellows, a model ideal of the Christian gentleman and minister. About thirty-five years of the forty of his effective ministry have been spent near this city. What a record is that! Unique in the history of our own Church; unique and remarkable in the history of any Christian denomination. Thirty-five years have passed! This marked him as the man in the Board of Bishops who enjoyed the distinction of having had a longer term of pastoral service than any other man in that board, so that they regarded him as 'The pastor-bishop.'"

It was said of him by one of the speakers at the funeral, that while he was a resident of Saint Louis, he scarcely had a fortnight at one time to spend there. His duties were so many.

"Yet up and down our States he went, dedicating, preaching, inaugurating, lecturing, conferring, visiting, inspecting, deciding, appointing, inspiring, praying, and living the itinerary of the typical general superintendent, till we had ceased to marvel that he knew us so well. And with it all, he grew. It may be as some have said that he matured gradually, but the tree was well rooted and had a strong growth, and blossomed into a fruitage of rare quality."

He was a very persistent worker, never giving up a task until it was fully completed. He had a heart of sympathy for those who needed his help, and was eager for the souls of the people. He strongly believed the word of God, that men were lost in their sins, and must be rescued or lost forever. Hence in his pastorate "he spent himself in real earnest toil and perfect devotion to that end, and hence his ministry was evangelistic, resulting in the ingathering of very many into the churches which he served."

The Editor of the Epworth Herald said:

"The Church will regret that the valuable services of Bishop Spellmeyer are no longer to be at its call. When he was chosen a long period of increasing usefulness in his office was hoped and predicted for him. But the will of God is not always paralleled by the desires and plans of men. The Church bows its head in grief, because the blow is hard and not easy to be borne. But, while the worker is laid aside, the work goes on; and the faithful devotion of the workmen who have ceased from their labors is an inspiration to those other workers who still abide, and are making daily glad offering of consecrated energy in sacred sacrifice for the establishment of the Master's kingdom in the earth."
